This past Wednesday Father Lee travelled to Rome, not for a vacation, but to assist young men in discerning a call to the priesthood.

Bishop Brennan has released Father Lee from his pastoral duties and given him permission to accept the role of Coordinator of Human Formation at his alma mater, The Pontifical North American College.

While his absence will be a loss for the diocese, his assignment is only for a few years.

Cherished by all age groups and admired for his joy and generosity, Father Lee, since his days at St. Mel's, exemplifies the virtues and qualities of a good, faithful priest. And so it's not surprising that North American College would ask Father Lee to assist them in forming the future priests of the United States.

I am sure he would appreciate an email or letter in the months ahead, so when you can, drop him a line.

May the Lord give him the wisdom and grace to form the Church's future shepherds after the heart of the Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ.

St. Mel's Office of Faith Formation oversees the St. Mel School of Religion Program which provides Religious Instruction to children in grades 1 through 8 who attend public schools.

Through our Religious Education program, we seek to increase children's awareness of the presence of God in their daily lives through Scripture, prayer and an age-appropriate curriculum. The program also prepares the children to complete their initiation into the Catholic Church through the Sacraments of Penance/First Communion and Confirmation.

Classes are held on Wednesdays from 3:30 pm to 5:00 pm for Grades 1-5 and from 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm for Grades 6-8.

If you haven't already, new and returning students should register for the 2024-2025 school year as soon as possible by completing the on-line registration form at:

<https://stmels-queens.org/religious-education>. The tuition fee for the 2024-2025 school year is $150 for one child, $200 for two children and $225 for three or more children. Tuition can be paid through one of the following three options:

OCIA – Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

A Journey of Faith

ARE YOU SOMEONE OR DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO...

- Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?
- Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Communion and/or Confirmation?

If you answered yes to either of these questions, we invite you to look deeper into the Catholic faith through a process called the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (“OCIA”)

Here at St. Mel, we offer an opportunity to come together in a small group (collaborating with the program at St. Luke’s), to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation during the Easter season.

You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith story in a warm and welcoming setting. If you are interested in learning more about this program, please contact the Office of Faith Formation at stmelfaithformation@gmail.com.

Bundle Saturday St. Vincent de Paul

The next bundle Saturday will be October 12th. St. Vincent de Paul will have a truck in the St. Mel's parking lot from 9am—12:00pm.

Lightly used clothing is needed. They also accept shoes, handbags, towels, and linens. Thank you for your generosity.

First Friday Adoration, August 2nd following the 8:00 AM Mass. Benediction, 12:00 PM. In the event of a funeral, adoration will be held in the chapel.

Maria S.S.ma di Canneto

Settefrati (FR) / Valle di Comino

Domenica 28 luglio, alle 9 del mattino

PREGHIERA:

O celeste, Abitatrice dei monti, eccoci ai tuoi piedi. I nostri occhi si beano del Tuo volto soave, il nostro cuore si ricolma di tenerezza, il nostro labbro trepidante T'invoca. Perché da secoli, o solitaria Castellana, posi su queste balze romite tra candori di vette e solitudini di selve, se non per esserene gran tempio della natura, strada che conduci a Dio?

Vedetta dell'Altissimo, posta a custodia di queste convalli, veglia sui nostri casolari e sui nostri campi.

Stella del Monte Meta, splendi radiosa sul nostro cammino e guida I nostri incerti passi al monte santo di Dio. Dacci di poter Ti vedere ancora negli anni in questa Tua dimora terrena, per poterci beare un giorno delle Tue divine fattezze negli splendori dei cieli. Amen

Sui balzi in Canneto
comparve Maria,
un suon d'allegria
quel bosco mand.

Evviva Maria
nell'ermo Canneto.
Un popolo lieto
evviva gridò!

Quel bosco, quell prato
si scelse a dimora,
di grazie l'aurora
per noi cominciò.

Evviva Maria ...

Le fulge sul petto
Più viva, più bella
La temola stella
Che l'alba annunziò.

Evviva Maria ...

Liturgical Ministries –

Introduction

“Mother Church earnestly desires that all the faithful should be led to that fully conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations which is demanded by the very nature of the liturgy. Such participation by the Christian people as ‘a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a redeemed people’ (1 Pet. 2:9; cf. 2:4-5), is their right and duty by reason of their baptism. In the restoration and promotion of the sacred liturgy, this full and active participation by all the people is the aim to be considered before all else.”

While this quote from the Second Vatican Council’s Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy (n. 14) is immensely rich and worthy of study, one simple result is that there are a variety of liturgical roles and ministries for the faithful, both clergy and laity. The word liturgy comes from two Greek words: litos (“people”) and ergos (“work”). It was used in public life before the time of Jesus to indicate “the work of the people,” “the work for/on behalf of the people.” Early Christians saw the principal, common ritual that they carried out every Sunday in fulfillment of the Lord’s command as “their work.”

The weeks ahead will be an opportunity to explore “our work” as embodied in the various liturgical ministries.
